Jillian Scheschuk
Elevator Speech

My Algebra 2/Trigonometry unit is on "Exploring Families of Functions, Transformations, and Inverses." The students have minimal background knowledge on the topics, so I will be building deeper understandings of six different families of functions and their defining characteristics. The unit takes place over about two months of instruction and contains three main sections, with assessments following each. Students will acquire abilities to differentiate, evaluate, and apply knowledge of each function.